GORDON GILTRAP is one of the leading guitarists to come out of the British Folk scene. Unlike more folk-rooted guitarists, however, he is unique in the fact that he does not play finger style. In fact, as one critic wrote, he can play more notes with a single plectrum than most people can with ten fingers. He has recorded four albums and will shortly be producing his fifth, which will include his recently completed Suite for Guitar, which draws its inspiration from early English composers like Dowland and Byrd rather than folk music. It ends on a very contemporary note, however, as you can hear when he performs it tonight.

TIGER LILY are described by their leader/lyricist, Dennis Leigh, as cosmic vandals. A miner's son, Dennis was expelled from Preston Art College for "disorderly conduct with a model" and is currently finishing his third year at the Royal College of Art. His lyrics for Tiger Lily use many of the same images as his illustrations. A five-piece band, Tiger Lily recently issued a single for Gull of the theme tune for the erotic documentary "Ain't Misbehavin'".

VALHALLA LIBERATION are a Birmingham blues group led by Dave Campbell.

The compere for the evening is Karl Dallas, well-known journalist, author and broadcaster.

Thanks of the Anarchist Black Cross go to the above artists who have demonstrated real solidarity in coming forward to help us this evening without charge — as friends of freedom and the struggle of the people everywhere, without necessarily being in agreement with our views.

This event celebrates forty years of struggle by our comrade Albert Meltzer in the anarchist cause. He has been active in the anarchist movement from 1935 to the present.

THE ANARCHIST BLACK CROSS exists to help libertarian political prisoners all over the world. It is not a charity. It is a means of solidarity by helping victims of the class struggle in the fight against the common enemy internationally. It is not exclusively concerned with prisoners: it is a springboard to militant action in every part of the world. Its aim is the building of a revolutionary libertarian international, not on paper but out of practical deeds.

In Spain we have been instrumental in helping to re-structure the Resistance — to give aid to the political prisoners who are fighting fascism and to those who are re-building the workers' movement despite world indifference. As a result of directing interest to helping the anarchist fighters of Spain, we have activated anarchist movements in many parts of the world, including Britain, France, Germany, Belgium.

*Show me a flag
That does not fly over prision.
A flag no man has died for no law has lied for no child has cried for
Show me this flag
And I will call it my own.*
